The Holy Bible Is The Immutable Living Word Of the Eternal God

We Recommend The King James / A.V Bible, with most other translations The Bible Is Used To Deceive

All Of Our Rituals, Are An Abomination to The Eternal God.
All Of Our Festivals, Are An Abomination to The Eternal God.
All Of Our Pagan Practices, Are An Abomination to The Eternal God.

The Eternal God Is Not A Robotic Moron, On Whom We Make Demands,
And Whom we Obey, As We Like, And When It Is Convenient To Do So.

Christ Is Our Living, Loving, Personal Saviour. There Is No Other.
Christ Is The Solution To All Our Problems. There Is No Other.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is One God, and
One Mediator between God and men,
The Man, Christ Jesus.

You can be sincere and still be wrong.

Strong Delusion Part 3 by Peter James

Strong Delusion = Confusion Part 3 of 3

Strong Delusion - W.C.G. - A Case Study
(Worldwide church Of God)

1 John 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in darkness, we lie and do not the truth:

2 Corinthians 6:14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness?
and what communion hath light with darkness?

I need to make it very clear that I neither hate nor despise the members of the Worldwide Church of God. I have many friends in this organisation and I am known by many more. It is not an exaggeration to say several hundreds. My purpose is to state what is going on in this organization. My hope is that my efforts will assist some, so that they might be released from the control, manipulation and captivity, which is their present plight.

It is for this reason that we are presenting the facts. We have said that the W.C.G. is freemason oriented, and now Jesuit controlled. We stated that the church will eventually go down the road of becoming Roman Catholic. The task of producing this document has been made very much easier by the recent Worldwide Church of God publication.

"Times of Praise and Worship",

An Introduction to Christian Celebrations

The booklet is constructed to give the appearance of scholarship and accuracy. It is a total mirage.

The more you check it out, the more you will see this statement to be very accurate.

The first point we have to consider is the name of the publication.

It claims to be 'Times of Praise and Worship'.

It is no such thing.

It contains neither Praise nor Worship.

It uses the very interesting word 'Celebrations', as part of its subtitle.

This is a buzz word in the Christian community.

Even when you go to a funeral, you are told that we are not at a sad occasion, we are at the celebration of the life of the deceased.

This is a blatant lie.

I have had to bury my sister, my brother, my mother, and my son.

My father died when I was around 4 years old.

I can tell you that there was absolutely no celebration at these funerals.

they were times of great loss, hurt and pain.

I celebrated nothing.

But where has this word celebration suddenly come from?

I will list 6 questions which will prove that the statements which I am making are correct. They will be mentioned as required throughout the document and then a list of them will be given at the conclusion.

These points were made by an ex-Jesuit priest Alberto Rivera. He said that if your answer to any, or all of these questions is yes, then your church has been successfully taken over by the Jesuits, and of course the Roman Catholic Church.

Point 3 From Alberto Rivera

Does your church engage in celebration style church services that are more contemporary with the times and have more upbeat music?

This was part of the papacy's plan at Vatican II, in taking over all the churches.

I was heavily involved in music in the W.C.G. I had very clear Rhema that I must not forget the old traditional music. I was careful to obey this command.

Having commented on the cover, we can now look at the contents of the recent Worldwide Church of God booklet. It is displayed as shown similarly to what you can see below. The ~~red-strike~~ through words, are put there by me to show changes in teaching, and errors, which cannot be scripturally supported.

The other items on the Contents page are Appendices.

There are 18 items mentioned above.

In over 30 years in that organisation, 17 of those items, which are in red with a strike through line, were vigorously refuted. Members literally sacrificed their lives, their families, their jobs, and their income proving by their living that these 17 items were not of the Eternal God.

These are a staggering number of foundational changes for any organisation to make.

It does also mean that the organisation which once was, no longer exists, whether the name is changed or not is immaterial.

A name change by itself declares the death of the original organisation.

Regardless of the membership figures claimed, It is a stark reality that the congregations are not even a shadow of their former selves.

The North London congregation, which was between 200-300 is now down to a few dozen.

The Northampton congregation, which was around 150, is down to at best a couple of dozen.

The Nicene Creed, is mentioned several times throughout the booklet and in the appendix.

This is what the Catholic Encyclopedia says about it:

“As approved in amplified form at the Council of Constantinople (381) it is the profession of the Christian Faith common to the Catholic Church, to all the Eastern churches separated from Rome, and to most of the Protestant denominations.

Though the origin of this creed is claimed to be unknown, from its very name Nicene Creed Statement of Christian faith named after the

First Council of Nicaea (AD 325)

This was part of the Roman Catholic / Constantine council”

The Apostles Creed is also mentioned in the booklet.

You might mistakenly believe that the Apostles created this creed.

“The Symbolum apostolorum was developed between the second and ninth centuries. It is the most popular creed used in worship by Western Christians. Its central doctrines are those of the trinity and God the Creator.

Legend has it that the Apostles wrote this creed on the tenth day after Christ’s ascension into heaven. That is not the case, though the name stuck. However, each of the doctrines found in the creed can be traced to statements current in the apostolic period. The earliest written version of the creed is perhaps the Interrogatory Creed of Hippolytus (ca A.D. 215). The current form is first found in the writings of Caesarius of Aries (d 542)”

The creed was apparently used as a summary of Christian doctrine for baptismal candidates in the churches of Rome. Hence it is also known as The Roman Symbol.

See the Catholic Encyclopedia, though it seems probable that it was not in Gaul, but in Rome, that the Creed really assumed its final shape. (see Burn in the “Journal of Theol. Studies”, July 1902)

This great Creed is a statement of belief that each of us should pronounce daily in our prayers. It reminds both God and ourselves that we have accepted and engraved in our hearts the faith that was preached by the apostles.

--Father Robert F. McNamara

St. Thomas the Apostle Roman Catholic Church

I am using Roman Catholic sources to establish the truth of what I am saying. W.C.G. is down the road to becoming a full-blown Roman Catholic Church. They can say what they like, the facts can be researched and verified by anyone who has the desire to check what I am saying.

Appendix 6 Pages 45 and 46, the conclusion of the book quotes both creeds in full.

The Nicene Creed is mentioned in the section titled ' Advent', page 10

The Nicene Creed is mentioned in the section titled 'Christmas', page 11

In over 30 years, I never heard the creeds mentioned once, in any meeting, or service. I have never seen it promoted in any Bible Correspondence Course, of which there were several, or mentioned in any material published or broadcast by this organization. However, it is all over this little booklet, which really is a statement of beliefs, and it would be a much more accurate and honest title.

All Saints

1 November, instituted to honor all the saints, known and unknown.

It owes its origin in the Western church to the dedication of the Pantheon in honor of the Blessed Virgin and all the martyrs by pope Boniface IV, 609 the anniversary of which was celebrated at Rome, 13 May. pope Gregory III (731-741) consecrated a chapel in the Vatican basilica in honor of All Saints, designating 1 November as their feast; Gregory IV extended its observance to the whole Church.

It has a vigil and octave and is a holy day of obligation.

The eve is popularly celebrated as Hallowe'en.

<http://www.catholic-forum.com/saints.ncd00345.htm>

Do you see that 3 Popes and the Virgin Mary are mentioned? are we really saying that the church is not going Roman Catholic?

How long before Marian worship, that is Mary worship is introduced?

As the Roman calendar is in common usage today, and the day is considered night and day, the evening of All Saints can be regarded as part of the same day.

The festival of All Saints, also sometimes known as "All Hallows," or "Hallowmas" ("hallow meaning "holy", and "mass" meaning "Mass"), is a feast celebrated in their honour.

All Saints is also a Christian formula invoking all the faithful saints and martyrs, known or unknown. The roman Catholic holiday (Festum Omnium sanctorum) falls on November 1,.... en.wikipedia.org/wiki/All\_Saints

I can also tell you witches consider Halloween to be one of the most powerful nights in the witches calendar.

Point 4 from Alberto Rivera.

Is your church forgetting their historic teachings and becoming more modern, casting away the old truths as relics of the past?

In the Preface, Dr Joseph Tkatch says that Jews observe days that remind them of the Exodus, when God rescued them from slavery in Egypt, brought them to Mount Sinai, and into the Promised Land.

The Passover was the only Festival which marked the deliverance of the nation off Israel from the cruel bondage of the Egyptians.

The very first festival, the Sabbath day, was instituted immediately after Adam and Eve had been created.

We can distort and massage the scriptures as suits us, but lies will never prevail. The Eternal God did not rest because He was tired and needed to rest. The Sabbath was made to be a blessing to man whom He had created. Man was not made to sweat and toil and live in fear and confusion as we do today. This is all the result of rebellion and disobedience.

There was not a Jew in sight when the Sabbath was made.

Additionally, it is a statement of fact that Christ and His apostles, kept the Sabbath and the Holy days.

We have many documents on the website which explain this in great detail. I suggest that you use the search facility to locate and view these messages. It is a fact that in the future these days will be kept again.

Isaiah 66: 22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

Isaiah 66: 23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

The Sabbath by definition has never been and can never be Sunday, which is the first day of the week. You do not need a doctorate in order to know that the Sabbath is the seventh day. Ask any Jew.

It is clear from the following verses, that this is a future event which has has not yet happened.

It is nonsense to say that the Israelites and Jews kept the commandments, then Christ and His apostles kept them and then somehow after Christ died, they were 'done away with', but they will be re-instated in the future.

I am really thankful for the stability, and unchangeableness of the Eternal God. I have no idea what I would do if He was unreliable and operated by whim.

Zechariah 14:16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

Zechariah 14:17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

Zechariah 14:18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

Zechariah 14:19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

Zechariah 14:20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD'S house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

Zechariah 14:21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Verse 19 specifically states to disobey will result in drought and plague.

We can always tear these verses from Isaiah and Zechariah out of the bible if we wish, but you know what? It would not matter in the slightest, as what the Eternal God has declared will happen, will happen period. Eugene Peterson wrote something called The Message Bible. He should really be complimented for the choice of name, because it truly is The Mess of the Age.

I have learnt that it is a diabolical paraphrase of the Word of God. Lo and behold it is quoted on page page 23 of the booklet under the Pentecost section.

You will also find Augustine mentioned: Augustine of Hippo let us give him, his true title.

He is actually Saint Augustine, another Roman Catholic.

As soon as you see the word Saint, St, think Roman Catholic.

The booklet also makes the point that Catholic means universal. This is true but nonetheless many of the doctrines and people quoted are Roman Catholic.

So amply and magnificently did Augustine develop his theory on the Church that, according to Specht "he deserves to be named the Doctor of the Church as well as the Doctor Of Grace", and Möhler (Dogmatik, 351)

Catholic Encyclopedia

John Chrysostom (c. A.D. 347-407), let us give him, his true title. He is actually Saint John Chrysostom, another Roman Catholic. You will find an entire website devoted to him, if you want to check it out.

Gregory of Nyssa (d. post A.D. 385) let us give him, his true title. He is actually Saint Gregory of Nyssa. He belongs to the group known as the "Cappadocian Fathers"

Catholic Encyclopedia

Gregory of Nazianzus, let us give him, his true title. He is actually Saint Gregory of Nazianzus.

Doctor of the Church, born at Arianus, in Asia Minor, c. 325; died at the same place, 389.

He was son -- one of three children

-- of Gregory, Bishop of Nazianzus (329-374)

Catholic Encyclopedia

Ephrem Syrus also called Ephraem Syrus, let us give him his true title. He is actually Saint Ephrem Syrus.

Born at Nisibis, then under Roman rule, early in the fourth century; died June, 373. The name of his father is unknown, but he was a pagan and a priest of the goddess Abnil or Abizal.

Catholic Encyclopedia

Although his is not the only one to follow this pattern, I will use him to illustrate the point. The booklet made the point how smart it was to absorb the Satanic celebration of the winter solstice and make it Christian. Well here we see a pagan priest, sorry, not my words I am quoting from the Catholic Encyclopedia, being absorbed into the Great False Church, the Great Whore, Babylon the Great, mother of harlots.

Pray tell exactly where is the WCG going?

Didymus the blind did not make it to Sainthood but he is mentioned in the Catholic encyclopedia.

He certainly is not the only one who is blind.

Here is a comment from the Catholic encyclopedia:

"In his commentaries Didymus shows himself to be much influenced by Origen."

Now you might not know much about Origen, but I can tell you that, that short statement says a tremendous amount and it is negative in the extreme.

I will not confuse the issue with a technical analysis of Origen.

Make up your mind from this single statement.

"The Laws of men appear more excellent and reasonable than the laws of God".

You will find that in the New Age book The Hidden Wisdom in the Holy Bible.

Would you use his comments on the bible?

Tertullian did not make it to a saint, but he certainly followed the patten of pagan to priest. He was a very important person. Quintus Septimus Florens Tertullianus was born in Carthage to pagan parents, but became a Christian at some point before AD 197. Tertullian is the church father who more than any other has been taken to epitomise the anti-intellectualism of the early Church.

Then the church fathers are mentioned. The name alone declares who they are.

It is the hallmark of the Roman Catholic church to call their priests, Father. This practice is forbidden in the bible.

Matthew 23:9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

We further blaspheme by calling men, Holy Father, and we call ministers Reverend. These terms should be reserved for the Eternal God, and Him alone.

Ministers, tell your members clearly where you are leading them. Do not write intellectual sounding confusion. Don't hide the facts so that your membership do not realise who these people really are.

Let us mention some names of the popes mentioned.

Pope Boniface IV
Pope Gregory III
Pope Gregory IV

Emperor Constantine

Last but by no means least is Emperor Constantine whose law was, Follow my church.

- the Roman Catholic Church, or lose everything you have, including your life. He killed many genuine believers, confiscated their possessions and replaced the Sabbath of the Eternal with Sunday worship under pain of death.

A truly nasty piece of work.

I wonder, was he a Nephilim?

We have mentioned Pagan Popes, Evil Emperors, Roman Catholic Councils, Roman Catholic Saints, Latin titles, fortunately translated, the language of the Roman Catholic Church, and several Catholic festivals, I do not think that it is stretching the point to call the booklet, a Catholic document. It is clearly demon-strated. I hate this word and never use it, but I think that it is very apt in this case. All these Council meetings mentioned are Roman Catholic council meetings. We are clearly told that the Eternal God does not change. Can't He make up His mind on what He wants us to do?

Malachi 3:6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

All these points which we are mentioning, actually nullify the proposal that they are pointing people to Christ, as the Roman Catholic church certainly does not know or teach the real Christ. It is certainly one of Satan's major headquarters.

Continuing with the Feasts.

From the very first paragraph an attempt is made to denigrate the Festivals of the Eternal. This theme continues throughout the booklet. They are referred to as Festivals or days of the Israelites, the Old Feasts. There is a chart of Israelite and Christian Festivals. It is claimed that the Holy days of Leviticus 23 were given to Israel to rehearse the mighty saving events of the Exodus, when God brought them out of slavery in Egypt with an outstretched arm.

Really?

In the Old Testament the Festivals are called, the Feasts of the Lord, and are also referred to by the Eternal as My feasts.

Leviticus 23:2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

Leviticus 23:4 These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

Leviticus 23:37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

Leviticus 23:44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel

the feasts of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 2:4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

Ezra 3:5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.

Therefore in the Old Testament, the Feasts are stated to be the Feasts of the Eternal God. When the Israelites are being chastised the feasts are called your feasts.

In the New Testament the Feasts are referred to in the gospel of John as the feast of the Jews.

It is as if the Eternal was distancing himself from the Festivals which were created to be a blessing to His people.

John 5:1 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

John 6:4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

John 7:2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

What we read about 'their feasts', cannot be declared to be positive.

Jeremiah 51:38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

Jeremiah 51:39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

What we read about 'your feasts', cannot be declared to be positive.

Jude 1:12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

The situation when we read about 'your appointed feasts', is worse.

The Eternal says He hates them.

This is not a small matter.

Isaiah 1:14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

In the last book of the Old Testament in the King James Bible we see that the feasts have descended to the lowest depths.

They are called 'the dung of your solemn feasts'.

This is a world away from Feasts of the Lord our God and My feasts.

I would say that is absolutely tragic.

Malachi 2:3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

In Part 1 Rhema on Strong Delusion, we also can see the very same principle spoken.

The church was spoken of as 'your church'.

The Eternal God had completely disassociated Himself from it.

Without any fear of contradiction whatsoever, I can say that the Eternal God will never ever associate Himself, with the self-appointed feasts which are highlighted in red strike through letters above.

Neither will He ever tell us to associate with, absorb, and practise the Satanic customs which are being promoted in the 'Times of Praise and Worship Booklet.'

A statement is made warning us to be very careful not to use the word 'pagan', for all sorts of reasons.

I am not using the word which might have a doubtful origin and meaning.

I am using the very clear and easy to understand word, Satanic.

The reason is very simple.

You either serve Satan or the Lord God.

You either choose life or death.

All the items mentioned except Pentecost, and even that might have a hidden agenda, are blatantly lies and wrong. It is as simple as that.

Here are classic examples of strong delusion.

Delusion no 1

The Church of God group is the one true church.

Outside of this group your salvation is not only in doubt but impossible.

Whatever 'changes', might take place, this brain washing has already been fully established.

Therefore the damage is already done.

After all no sane person wants to lose their salvation.

Therefore like a fish caught on a line with a barbed hook, you will fight and struggle, even try to run for it, but the line has been well prepared there is a strong wire connecting the hook so that you cannot break through the synthetic line. Swivels had been put on the line so that if you run off at high speed, jump and twist hoping to dislodge the hook, the line twists with you. The only escape is deliverance by Jesus Christ.

Salvation is through no group whatsoever. It is through Christ and it is our personal relationship with Him that is important. The booklet speaks about pointing people to Christ, when it obviously does not.

Delusion no 2

There is a big furor about changing the name of the church. It appears that this is being resisted strongly in Britain, but not in other parts of the world. Great emphasis is made of the critical importance of having the right name. In fact the Worldwide Church of God changed its names many years ago. The United Church of God, with 450 ministers and 19,000 members, moved seamlessly from W.C.G. without a murmur. If you want to continue following Mr. Armstrong, you could always go to this organisation. If you like choice you can go to the Philadelphia Church of God. Their Philadelphia Trumpet magazine is a Worldwide publication which never fails to mention Herbert Armstrong and his writings.

Am I recommending them?
Hardly.

Join them and continue to be in the strong delusion which we are addressing. So while these poor people are worrying about a name change it has already taken place. We should never fear to confront truth which will bring us freedom. Be courageous and click on this link to see a comprehensive list of lies and deceptions which have been palmed off as facts: WCG Index

Delusion no 3

Massaged membership numbers. Current membership worldwide is claimed to be 67,000. The booklet avoids giving UK membership. This is quite interesting, and certainly not an oversight. According to one research organisation these figures are a figment of the imagination, and grossly overstated. If the membership figures are wrong then there inevitably has to be income distortions.

Delusion no 4

The origin of various doctrines. I accept that various groups can have teachings of truth. That is fine and there is no problem. However, when it is claimed that this is the direct inspiration of God, then I have a problem. Check out 'Doctrines' which claim to have come from God, but were in fact taken from Seventh Day Adventists, Jehovah Witnesses, etc.

Delusion no 5

Those that disagree and are vocal against 'the changes', are unaware that the objective is to upset them so that they leave and join one of the conglomerate groups, which of course they believe is not related.

They are unaware that they are being carefully coralled without their knowledge, into another section of the Church of God group. This is just a very tiny sample of the prevailing delusions.

Be courageous and check out what I am saying without simply discarding it to the dustbin. Forget your emotions. Consider for a moment what are you going to do, if what I am saying is true and you rejected it without diligently checking it out? I will tell you what will happen, you will end up weeping and gnashing your teeth. Some members tell me that they do not read the church publications, which they call 'that rubbish'. Some simply throw it away.

Neither act disassociates them from the organisation to which they belong. Furthermore, it is their hard-earned money which they are throwing away. It is a gross delusion to say that they have given the money to God and what is done with it is God's business. The reality is that you have a mind, and you really should use it.

When you admit that you do not agree with what is taught, preached and written, then, if you support such an organization, it makes you an accomplice in destroying the lives of others.

We completely underestimate Satan and how devious he is. We must really accept that the things which happen are carefully schemed and planned just like President Roosevelt said, they are not chance. However those involved do not even know the game which is being played, much less the rules.

Truly a very strong delusion.

I do not need to waste time to discuss each individual item as the information already exists in WCG books and booklets.

What I will say is that you can call a pile of mess a chocolate cake.

You can go further, and convince every one who is gullible, that what you are saying is correct.

Those convinced might even set about convincing others that the dung is chocolate. The reality is that the moment anyone who has been deceived into believing this, takes a single bite, there will be a very rude awakening.

They will find out that dung is dung, no matter how it is packaged and labeled. All will be revealed.

Over and over we are warned not to adopt the ways of the heathen.

Jeremiah 10:2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

The Eternal God says that is an abomination which is totally unacceptable to Him, but we are so pompous and arrogant that we feel that we can do exactly that. I would not be surprised in the slightest to see praying for the dead, and Mary worship rear its head.

I should not really be too harsh, because sophisticated brain washing is used to get the results which the leaders require.

This false idea that anything at all which is used to point people to Christ is acceptable is gaining popularity. Some say and have written that it is OK to use witchcraft manuals to point people to Christ.

John Halford, one of the highest ranking WCG ministers, stated that there was nothing wrong with Harry Potter.

Is that so?

Some say that these books can be used to lead people to Christ.

We are being told that Satanic handbooks are ok.

I would really like to know what is not ok.

I know the answer really, this document for a start.

The truth is that people who were witches of exceedingly high rank, have warned of the very real dangers. It is much worse than playing with fire.

These authorities did not read it in some book. It was their life.

They know of what they speak.

There are ministers, who are constantly threatening to put people out of the church.

There are ministers who act as policemen to see that other ministers toe the line.

Those who do not are side lined.

Ministers or their wives are sick, some have had breakdowns, some have suffered a degree of blindness, some have died. I do not class these things as blessings.

The leaders who are misleading their flocks can be identified in two places.

Daniel 11:35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

The leaders are not fools.
They are people who had understanding.

The second place refers to 'strong delusion'.

2 Thessalonians 2 In verse 7

We see that from the time of Paul the mystery of iniquity, which means Satan's hidden activity through people was already working.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2 In verse 8

We see that this continues right up to the return of Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

2 Thessalonians 2 In verse 9

We see that this is Satanic activity.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2 In verses 10 to 12

We see that the words them and they are used. In reality we see that the strong delusion is such that they believe a lie and it affects many. In experience we see that it affects the leaders and the membership.

2 Thessalonians 2:10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

2 Thessalonians 2:12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The truth is that the brain washing has been so thorough that even when members, be they leaders or lay members, see the lies and error, they cannot break away.

They have a misguided loyalty.

As one minister said, if you leave us where will you go?

The implication is that you are trapped there is no way out, because you are in the one True Church.

Of course this is yet another lie.

It is like an abused wife, who stays and takes the beatings from her drunken husband.

She fears to leave because she feels that she might end up in a worse situation than her present relationship.

So powerful is the spirit of control, and do not be fooled that is precisely what it is, that members will tell you outright that the ministers are lying to them, but yet they stick around. They will tell you that they do not read the 'church publications' which are branded 'rubbish', and 'lies', however, they dutifully send in their financial contributions. I admit that I do not really understand this at all.

The literature that they throw in the bin is their money.

They might as well throw it directly into the bin themselves.

Surely it behoves us to be wise stewards.

Does that sound like wise stewardship with the blessings which we have been given?

As I have said before if in your meetings you acknowledge that you are being told rubbish and lies, I would say that you are actually worshipping at the altar of Satan, and not the Eternal God.

John 8:44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him.

When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

1 John 1:5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness
We are clearly told we cannot be in the light and at the same time walk in darkness.

John 8:12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. We are told that if we say we have fellowship with Christ and yet walk in darkness we are liars.

1 John 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:
We have written many times that we have to come out of Babylon.

Revelation 18:4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. We see exactly the same thing here.

1 Peter 2:9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
We are told that we must not be unequally yoked.

Ephesians 5:11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

Note although this addresses the W.C.G. you can see the very same thing happens in other 'fellowships', so this has a much broader application than might first appear.

We should therefore apply these messages to our own circumstances.

I believe that any one who is part of an organisation which in a publication quotes the poet Milton's 'Paradise Lost' and claims as Satan, the lost archangel says: "Better to reign in hell than serve in heaven", is in serious trouble.

This might obviously be seeking to get attention, but I would not read any further.

It probably sums up the situation.

It certainly leaves me in no doubt that 'God has left the building'.

Alberto Rivera - ex Jesuit Priest's Check list, for you to see if your church is under the control of the Roman Catholic Church.

1. Is your church still protesting against the tyranny of the papacy?
2. does your church still teach that the papacy is the anti-christ, or is it something that your church once taught, but now shies away from because it is not politically correct?
3. Does your church engage in celebration style church services that are more contemporary with the times and have more upbeat music?
This was part of the papacy's plan at Vatican II in taking over all the churches.
4. Is your church forgetting its historic teachings and becoming more modern, casting away the old truths as relics of the past?
5. Are your church periodicals finding more and more good things to say about the papacy, even considering the Vatican leaders to be fine Christian people?

6. Is your church willing to join the ecumenical movement, even if it means sacrificing some basic teachings or principles that the church once believed?

Be Humble

Repent

Listen To The Eternal God

Obey Him.

This is very easy to say, but I assure you that it is physically impossible without the empowerment of the Eternal God.

Just going up to some altar call, running to some church, or isolating yourself in the hope that somehow it will all go away, will not do it.

What are you going to do about it before it is too late?
