Heaven – Is That Your Destination ?

It Will Never Happen.

By Peter James from: www.peterjamesx.com

Question: If you answer is 'Yes' Whom are you planning to take with you? You need to make sure to take some company, otherwise you are going to be there all on your own. You read correctly, 'Alone'.

The vast majority of 'Churchianity' teaches, that you go to heaven when you die.

I know that, but that does not make it right, does it?

Over 2 Billion observe Sunday, Christmas, Easter, and even Halloween, that does not make them right does it ?

Because vast numbers of people adhere to some belief or other, does not make it right.

In fact, it is often the case, that if everyone is doing it, you probably should not be doing it.

The figure must be around 2 Billion Christians, who believe that heaven is the final goal of 'believers'.

Even non-Christians believe in a paradise, for example 1.2 billion Muslims do so.

That gives us straight away half of the world's population.

We will not deal with the other billions that adhere to Buddhism and Hinduism, with some version of re-incarnation, and eventually a sort of nothingness, which cannot be explained.

I keep hearing pastors mentioning going to heaven, even more so in these very perilous times.

Of course you should always prepare to meet your maker, as today might well be your last day on planet earth, but that certainly does not mean, that you are going to heaven.

Going to heaven is just one amongst the many false doctrines.

When added to the health and wealth gospel, for the immediate present, and some sort of wonderful fuzzy heaven, for the future, this is a very attractive prospect for most, who are experiencing a mundane, and even miserable existence, in their daily lives, which is just grinding them into the dust.

Furthermore, most believe that their dearly departed family, and friends have already arrived there, and they cannot wait to leave this very sad state of affairs in the world, to be in heaven, with their loved ones. After all, they heard this many times when they attended funerals of some loved one.

Personally I find funeral messages the most confusing of any message, as the minister obviously has no clue about how to unravel, going to heaven, and the resurrection.

Why have a resurrection, if all is already perfect in heaven, particularly if heaven is was the goal in the first place?

The reality is that nowhere in the bible are we told that the saved are going to heaven.

We are not going there by the direct route, nor via the indirect route of Purgatory.

There is a wonderful future promised in the bible, but it certainly is not in heaven.

The Roman Catholic Church, which is the largest, so called Christian church, has a sequence of events, for its followers, after you are born, lived and died. If you die, and are a baby, you went to 'Limbo', a sort of very gently toasting to purification.

I believe that they had cancelled this doctrine now.

They change their doctrines as they feel the urge. They declare some people saints like the popular St Christopher, and as they are running out of space to accommodate all the saints they decanonize them, they remove their sainthood from them. Millions, who buy St Christopher medals and the like, for protection, are unaware that poor St Christopher is now only Christopher.

If you die as an adult, regardless of who you are, whether a Pope or a pauper, or how good you are, you went to 'Purgatory', this is supposedly a more robust severe roasting than limbo was.

In both of the supposed places you went through some sort of purification by fire. Finally after you had completed the process, which could of course be speeded up by prayers for the dead, and having mass said, which all cost money, you would be released into the bliss of heaven.

This is a huge money-spinner.

We have to mention that over 1.2 billion people believe this.

Purgatory is a distortion of 'Hell'.

Hell is very real and it is not a place of just tyrannical suffering for the sake of suffering. You, or anyone else cannot buy someone out of hell.

Hell is a temporary place.

Revelation 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

Revelation 20:14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

During the life of a person they are given many blessings, many trials, and many opportunities to acknowledge the Eternal God.

If they fail to do this during their lives, then they go to hell, an area of intense suffering. The purpose of hell is the very same as the severe trials, which existed on the earth, to get people to acknowledge the Eternal God.

Some will do so and for some even the horrific suffering of hell, will not make them change, therefore the Lake of Fire is their final destination.

Here is a physical fact.

There are not enough Roman Catholic priests in existence to say enough masses for the already deceased Roman Catholic priests.

Therefore, the member has absolutely no chance of having the necessary masses to deliver them, or their loved ones from Purgatory, regardless of how much they pay, and even pray!

You will find this information here:

Written in the 19th Century it is applicable NOW.

Consider the absurdity of Purgatory in these scenarios.

Mr. Evil, a Catholic, had been a very violent person, he had stolen from, and killed many people. In fact his last act was to kill someone. It was in this final act that he was shot, and killed. He was a good Roman Catholic, and donated generously to their coffers, but now he is in a coffin. The way the story goes is that there is absolutely no need for his grieving family to worry.

Just pay and pray, and pretty soon he will be out of the torment of purgatory.

Then St Peter will warmly welcome him, with open arms into Heaven.

The End.

Now Mr. Wonderful also a Catholic, died peacefully in his bed.

He was a charming man, always ready to help anyone.

It would be hard to find a fault with him.

He could not bother with attending 'church', he saw it as hypocritical. None the less he lived, and died a Catholic. The difference was that he was a poor man, and he certainly could not afford to have anyone pay to bury him, much less to have Mass said for him. Unfortunately for him, he will gently toasted in Purgatory for the duration, however, long that might be, maybe hundreds of years, poor Mr. Wonderful. Yes 'poor' indeed, it was his misfortune to be poor.

Do either of these scenarios make sense to you?

Precisely when does the character change take place for 'the soul' of Mr. Evil for him to be allowed to enter in to heaven?

I should state that man does not have a soul, he is a soul.

Man is a composite being comprised of a physical body and a spirit.

This breath of life included the spirit of man.

A body without the spirit in man is dead.

It is the spirit in man, which makes a man a human being, and not an animal.

Therefore evolution is just a Theory, it cannot be anything else.

It is not just the body of a dog that makes it a dog.

It is also the spirit of a dog in it, whilst it is alive.

Genesis 2:7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Repentance is a turning around, a change of direction and character, and being imbued with another spirit and the Holy Spirit.

Forget about the toasting in Purgatory, does this spiritual change take place there?

It is only your spirit that exists after you die, but that does not mean that it cannot be clothed with another identical human body, as the one which was buried or cremated, so that the pain experienced can be the very same as a human being.

I repeat.

The spirit in man has the most minute detail of the person, therefore this is easily possible.

I have never yet heard of any funeral anywhere, where the minister said that the wicked departed man, who has murdered several people, is now receiving his just reward in hell.

Have you?

Logic decrees that some must end up 'not in heaven', but in. 'hell, otherwise there is no point to its existence.

Christ said that hell was very real.

Document: Sinners, Hell, And Salvation      PDF Sinners, Hell, And Salvation

What does the bible say about 'Christians' going to heaven?
Is that our final goal?

Christ said that: 'The Meek shall inherit the earth'.
Surely we cannot think that this refers to the present earth, when the basest of men are not only in charge of the earth,
but are madly racing to destroy it.

The inheritance promised to believers is the earth, not heaven, additionally they shall be very happy, and in peace, which simply does not exist anywhere on the planet at this time.

It is precisely the very same promise, whether you read the Old Testament, or the New Testament

Psalm 37:11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Matthew 5:5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

What is the point of inheriting the earth, when the final reward is heaven?
You would be very hard pressed to find a meek person today, and what is absolutely certain is that the meek have no say in Satan's world system today.

I suppose that as heaven is 'up', we cannot get there by train, so it must be by plane !

Precisely what goes up there any way?
What is the soul, that we are told goes to heaven?

The soul cannot go to heaven, because at a funeral, we are looking at the body of the person, which whilst the person's human spirit was in them, they were alive, and a the living soul.

When the spirit in man returned to the Eternal God, who gave it to him in the first place, we are just left with a corpse.

Ecclesiastes 12:7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was:
and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

It is impossible to have a dead soul.
It is an oxymoron, that is a contradiction in terms.

It is quite true when you hear mourners say that the person is not there, because the real person, the human spirit has left the physical body.

This spirit of a person is a carbon copy, right down to the tiniest detail, except that it is spirit, therefore it is not tangible. It cannot be touched. It holds your feelings, emotions, memory absolutely everything about you.

Some scientists are beginning to understand, that the capacity of our minds is truly limitless, they might not know that it is because of the spirit in man.

When I am making videos, and I am cutting them to put them on Youtube.

I can play the video back right down to the level of individual frames.

Each scene that you see, is made up most times, of around 30 different frames.

I can play through each frame one at a time.

I can literally take a snap of an individual frame, and save it as a picture.

It is amazing to see how often we close our eyes.

In a way it is a weird experience, however, that is exactly how our lives can be played back to us at the judgment, one frame at a time. Therefore you can see every deed, and hear every single word, from the moment that you were born, until you died, just as I can with my videos.

If you doubt what you see, it can be run back endlessly, until you do not want to see it anymore.

Is that not a scary thing?

Fortunately on repentance of some sin, the frames are deleted, and overwritten, in a similar way as I can do with my computer and camcorder.

Once deleted they are gone forever.

Hebrews 8:12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

Hebrews 10:17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

Well those verse were written by Paul, and we don't think too well of Paul.

Isaiah said about Christ:

Isaiah 43:25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

So it follows that when you are alive, and you repent, we are told that our sins are blotted out, and therefore there is no need for a half-way house of Purgatory, when the Eternal God says that, he will not remember our sins when we repent.

And there you were thinking that all these cameras are really bad.

Of course they are, because our evil rulers are playing God.

We can forgive, but humanly it is very difficult to forget.
This is not a problem to the Eternal God.
He means precisely what He says.

We know that the body is dead, we can see it with our own eyes.
We know that there is no such thing as an immortal soul.
We know that the spirit returns to God who gave it in the first place.

We know that all the spirits of man cannot have gone to heaven, because sadly some people will end up in Hell.

After a person dies there is no further activity that can alter the destination of the spirit. In fact all men go to a holding place.

This place is divided into two parts.
One is called Abraham's bosom, that is where the righteous go, and the other is Hell where the unrighteous go.

Abraham's Bosom and Hell are deep within the earth.

Whether dead or alive, a man and his spirit are both confined to the area of the physical earth.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man is of the earth, earthy:
the second man is the Lord from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy:
and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

When King Saul went to the witch of Endor, he wanted to speak to the deceased Samuel.

Of course this is not permitted.
It is witchcraft.

However, we can learn many important things here. Saul knew full well that it was wrong, and he has passed laws to destroy anyone who transgressed this law.

It did not matter to him, as he was desperate, as he knew that the Lord had deserted him. He promised the witch that no harm would come to her.

Now the Eternal God gets involved.

The witch, used witchcraft to carry out her craft, but this time she saw something that was unusual, and that she had not seen before.

She actually saw the spirit of Samuel, and she absolutely panicked, as she did not expect this at all.

The woman saw and recognised Samuel as the genuine person, and not an evil spirit/demon masquerading as Samuel, as some like to suggest.

Look at how many times words meaning ascending is used.

We also see that King Saul, was fully aware that Samuel was in the earth.

1 Samuel 28:11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee?

And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

1 Samuel 28:12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

1 Samuel 28:13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

1 Samuel 28:14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

It is important to note that Saul also recognised Samuel as being genuine.

1 Samuel 28:15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up?

And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore

I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

If Samuel, was in heaven, he would not be brought up, but he would be brought down. He would have descended.

There is an even more important proof that it was literally the spirit of Samuel. Samuel was a prophet in Israel.

The Eternal God allowed him to return, to tell Saul precisely what was going to happen to him the next day. He told him that he would die, and that is precisely what happened to him.

So Samuel was continuing to do the job of a prophet, which is exactly what he did whilst he was on the earth.

1 Samuel 28:19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

I have to stress that this report about Lazarus and the Rich man, does not claim to be a parable.

Luke 16:20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

Luke 16:21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

Luke 16:22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

Luke 16:23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

Luke 16:24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

Luke 16:25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

Luke 16:26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

Luke 16:27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

Luke 16:28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

Luke 16:29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

Luke 16:30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

Luke 16:31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

In this entire report there is not a single mention of any one going to heaven. We have already established that the dead do not go to heaven, purgatory, or Limbo.

This issue of going to heaven has been a troublesome issue for millennia, Christ and the apostles had to deal with this very problem.

Christ bluntly said that no man had ascended up to heaven.
This is a plain simple statement that means what it says.

John 3:13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

This means that until the time Christ said these words, that was the situation. Therefore whatever happened to Enoch and Elijah, and the fiery chariot, they did not go to heaven. Christ did not, and does not lie, that is the full time job of Satan.

John 8:44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Christ later told Mary that he was going to ascend to His Father, which also fulfilled what He had said in John 3:13, quoted above.

John 20:17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

Because Christ ascended to heaven, it does not mean that we will do the same. He was God in the flesh.

See: Christ Is The Holy Spirit    The Holy Spirit Is God    Jesus Is God

Christ did say that He went to prepare a place for us so that we could be with Him.

But to conclude that this means a place in heaven is not supported by the bible.

Why we play with the scriptures, and distort them, so that we end up teaching countless millions, lies, I have no idea. We buy into the pagan lies of the multitude of humanity, instead of telling them the 'Truth', saying this is the way, walk in it. We have told ourselves lies so many times, that we now believe them to be true.

That is how lies work.

If you repeat a lie often enough, you will believe it, and many people do just that.

This matter of going to heaven was an issue even in the times of the apostles. The Apostle Peter said that even David, who as a man after God's own heart, had not made it to heaven.

Acts 13:22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said,

I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

If David had not made it to heaven, we can be absolutely certain that none of the rest of us are going to make it either.
Think about it.

The absolute nonsense of “Churchianity”, which teaches that Christ took all the souls to heaven with Him, when He ascended to heaven, is total lie.

We do not have souls we are living souls.

Peter, speaking at Pentecost, many days after the ascension of Christ, contradicted the false idea of going to heaven, and repeated what Christ had said, which was quoted above.

Acts 2:34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

Back to Enoch, he was clearly moved from one place to another, on the earth. Finally I suggest, that Enoch went to the very same place of comfort mentioned in the report of Lazarus and the Rich man, the place where ‘Father Abraham’, and the faithful await the resurrection. It is called Abraham’s Bosom or Paradise.

Genesis 5:24 And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

We should also keep in mind that there is a spirit world, and there is movement between the physical world, and the spirit world.

Hebrews 11:5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him:

for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

This is the record of the holding place of the spirits of the dead.

We can call it what we like, but we cannot call it heaven, because we see that there are two compartments, one of suffering, and the other of comfort.

Those in hell could see those in Paradise, and those in Paradise could see those in hell.

There is no suffering in heaven.

If there was, why would anyone want to go there anyway?

Luke 16:24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

Luke 16:25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

These were the spirits of Abraham, and we are told that the rich man was communicating with Lazarus.

The Eternal God lives in eternity.

Time and space are creations of His.

In modern terminology we could say that going to hell or Abraham's Bosom, is moving from one dimension to another.

That is as much as we can say.

The second controversial point is regarding Elijah.

Prophets tell of us of many different heavens.

I have seen others, I believe including Enoch refer to up to seven heavens.

Many have also claimed to have gone there.

Would you believe, that I have had someone trying to evaluate if I was false or true, simply on the question of whether I had been to heaven, because they had been to heaven, and I could only be true, if I had been to heaven.

This person is in serious error, and totally messed up.

I have never been to heaven, and furthermore it is not an objective of mine.

As I said in the Near Death Experiences, any experience that does not cause you to have the sort of relationship with Jesus Christ as defined in the Bible, cannot be from the Eternal God. Up to now all of these experiences I have read, simply confirm the persons in the error in which they are, or it moves them into a system of error, and results in putting non-Church people into fallen churches.

We are told that it is the Truth that sets you free, not any form of error.

John 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Of course the Truth that sets us free is Christ.

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

The following verse seems to be saying that at the time called the beginning, we are told that at a time in the distant past, as many billions of years as we would like to assign, the earth was made and so were the heavens.

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

This would be all of the heaven, which did not include the heavens of God's throne.

The word is singular, so there was the heaven, extensive though it is and the earth.

When we see our world from space, we see the first heaven, which surrounds our world. You have to look carefully to see this heaven. Our atmosphere is just a very thin line around our globe. Space is considered to begin around 60 miles above the surface of the earth. We can regard our atmosphere to be part and parcel of our earth.

On the second day we see the establishment of clouds and our atmosphere. It is most likely that this existed until whatever catastrophe took place between

Genesis 1:1 and

Genesis 1:2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

We know that anything that the Eternal creates is perfect, but Genesis 1:2, verse two tells us that, the earth was waste, chaotic, and the earth was covered with water and in a cloak of darkness.

Genesis 1:6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

Genesis 1:7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament:

and it was so.

Genesis 1:8 And God called the firmament Heaven.

And the evening and the morning were the second day.

We know of three heavens according to Word Of God and science.

First Heaven.

There are the heavens where the birds fly, and beyond to the clouds and the atmosphere.

It is clear from the following verse that the report about Elijah is restricted to the earth's atmosphere, as whirlwinds are.

Once again it is most likely that we have the second occurrence of moving from one dimension to another dimension.

2 Kings 2:11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

Second Heaven

The area beyond our atmosphere, where space starts and continues for however many light years that it exists. The domain of the planets, stars, galaxies etc.

Third Heaven

The heaven where God's throne is at this time.

Matthew 5:34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

The following statement is misunderstood, and taken to mean that we are going to heaven.

Christ said that in His Father's house are many mansions.
What does this mean?

John 14:2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

We do not have to go to Strongs, or a commentary, we simply need to see how the word 'mansions' is defined in these verses .

The end of the verse defines the word 'mansions' as a 'place'.

The next verse repeats the word 'place'.

Christ said that He was going to prepare a 'place' for us.

I am updating and amending this as I now believe that our positions in the Kingdom of God, had also been appointed at the time of the beginning.

These mansions, places, are most likely a place in the New Jerusalem, which will be brought to the New Earth. The critical point is that it is not a final reward located in heaven.

This takes place after the 1,000 reign by Christ and His saints on the earth.

Revelation 21:1 ¶ And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

Revelation 21:2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Revelation 21:5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

However, the crucial point is the next statement 'I will come again'.

We are then told that He will receive us to Himself

We are told: we are going to be received by Christ, to Himself, when He has returned to the earth.

Christ then confirms this again in case we have missed the point, when he says "that where I am, there ye may be also".

Remember, Christ just said that He was returning to the earth, so that we could be with Him.

We are clearly told where Christ is going to return, and the time when Christ will return to the earth, just like He was seen, when He ascended to heaven.

In the New Testament we are told

Acts 1:11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven?

this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

Acts 1:12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

In the Old Testament we get additional details of this same time.

Note that both sets of verses state that Christ will return to the Mount of Olives. This is all a part of the day of the Lord, which is an extended period of time.

Zechariah 14:1 ¶ Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

Zechariah 14:2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Zechariah 14:3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

Zechariah 14:5 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

It is not my intention to deal with the other religions, but a billion Muslims, believe in some similar 'paradise'.

End of the Extensive Notes

These are the actual notes which I used to make the Video

The Many Mansions

John 14:2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Funerals

The absurdity of praying for the dead.

It is too late when someone has died to pray for them.

We should pray for them when they are alive.

Death is followed by judgment.

Hebrews 9:27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

Luke 16:20 Lazarus and the rich man

Christ returns to the Mount of Olives

Zechariah 14:1 ¶ Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

Zechariah 14:5 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

Christ ascended into heaven and will return to the earth.

Acts 1:11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

Acts 1:12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

The meek shall inherit the earth.

Psalm 37:11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Matthew 5:5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Christ and the Manchild do exactly the same thing – rule with a rod of iron on the earth. The millennial reign before the New Heavens and the New earth.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Revelation 2:27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

Revelation 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

Psalm 2:7 ¶ I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Psalm 2:8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Psalm 2:9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Psalm 2:10 ¶ Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

The kingdom of heaven does not mean that the kingdom is in heaven.

PJ's Kitchen is not in P.J.

Neither is PJ's Kitchen literally limited to what happens inside my kitchen. The website and the YouTube videos are seen all over the world. The statistics are there to prove this.

kingdom of God

kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ:
kingdom of his dear Son:
kingdom of Christ and of God.

Colossians 1:13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

The kingdom of heaven 32 times. This is only found in the gospel of Matthew.

The kingdom of God 69 times, through out the New Testament.

We have to live a holy righteous life

You can clearly see that the doctrine about going to heaven is false. We need to prepare for the glorious future, by bringing our own spirits into subjection.

1 Corinthians 9:27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

1 Corinthians 11:31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

To do this we have to listen to and obey the Eternal God.

We will reign on the earth.

Revelation 5:10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

Revelation 11:15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

We could say that Heaven is coming to the earth, which the Eternal God planned from the foundation of the world to be His universal headquarters.

The New Jerusalem will be on earth not in heaven.

Revelation 21:2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Revelation 1:6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 5:10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

Our destination is not heaven it has never been. Right from the beginning Adam and Eve, were told to have dominion over the earth. That has not happened as yet, but it will happen.

This time it will be by transformed or resurrected man, as we have clearly shown that unconverted man simply cannot do this.

Genesis 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

We have seen that no one is going to heaven, but we could say that heaven is coming to earth.

Be Humble

Repent

Listen To The Eternal God

Obey Him

This is very easy to say, but I assure you that it is physically an impossibility without the empowerment of the Eternal God.

Just going up to some altar call, running to some church, or isolating yourself in the hope that somehow it will all go away, will not do it.

What are you going to do about it before it is too late?
